

EDFU & KOM OMBO

CODE:1106

---

Itinerary

- Meet your guide at your hotel lobby in Luxor and begin your journey to Edfu.
- On the way, receive your guide's full attention and be enlightened by tales of the ancient mythology of Egypt to pique your interest and enhance your understanding.
- Once in Edfu, enjoy an enthralling visit to the Temple of Horus and marvel at the best-preserved religious place in Egypt with imposing sandstone structures of Horus, the god of protection.
- Next, take a 1.5-hour drive to the Temple of Kom Ombo overlooking the east side of the River Nile and learn about the structures of the temple and how it was built in honor of two great divinities: the falcon-headed Horus or Haroeris, and the crocodile-headed god of fertility, Sobek.
- After spending a marvelous hour walking around the temple, it will be time for a lunch break in the city of Aswan.
- From here, either be dropped off at your hotel in Aswan or set off on the return journey to your accommodation in Luxor, depending on the tour option you select.
